All fees are non-transferable and non-refundable.

Multiple Entries – You may submit more than one project, but each one must be on a separate preview DVD and must be accompanied by its own completed submission forms and entry fee.

Deadlines- We have very strict timelines so deadlines are of the utmost importance. You may contact the festival at info@bciff.com for special consideration or approval to submit entries after the deadline, but please be aware that your request may be denied depending on the number of entries we receive.

Rights & Clearances- Applicant is responsible for clearing all rights to the content of the film or video project prior to submission. Applicant claims that he/she is authorized to submit the film or video project and all material associated with the film or video project to BCIFF, being the sole rights-holder or authorized representative thereof.

Notifications- All submissions & selected projects will be acknowledged via email. Please be sure to send a valid email address for the project's contact. The PROGRESS Arts Group Inc. and BCIFF will not be held accountable for notifications that cannot be sent due to invalid email addresses or addresses that are not written clearly on submission applications.

Awards- Contest winners will be announced at the Bayou City Inspirational Film Festival awards brunch, where awards will be given out. The finalists and winners will also be posted on the BCIFF website. BCIFF reserves the right to decline selecting a semi-finalist, finalist or winner in any category and at any stage of the judging, if there are no acceptable entries or finalists in that category. If your film is selected for screening, please make every effort to attend the film festival.

Screeners & press kit materials will not be returned. Please do not send originals.
